The HISTORY OF LEWIS KROPLIN AND FAMILY

This history was written by Rudolph Swartz who, in the late 1980s and/or the early 1990s, hand-wrote (printed) on every page of a 40 SHEETS 10½"x8" REGULAR RULE spiral bound single subject notebook. It is believed he wrote at least six copies (all by hand), and the following reproduction was photocopied from the book marked by Rudolph as "Freda".

Rudolph was born 10 Nov 1899, the son of Lena and Christ Schwartz. Lena is the fifth child of Lewis Kroplin, the subject of this history. His first child, Mary Kroplin married Henry Sass; Freda is the granddaughter of Mary and Henry.

On 18 Oct 1919, Rudolph married Retta Sayres (1903-1979) and they had 11 children. He died 18 May 1993 and is buried in Wheelock Cemetery, Nashville, Miami Co OH.

Joe Barnett Candidate for County Commissioner, was born and raised in Troy. He is one of the leading young business men and his policy, if elected, to this important office will be to treat all communities alike and not discriminate for or against because of political or other influence. Operating a farm himself, he is in close touch with the farmers and with his knowledge of municipal affairs makes him a desirable person to represent the people. He is a good road advocate and will do everything in his power to promote improvements of this kind.

Attorney W.S. Kessler had two divorce cases Monday in the common pleas court and the court granted a decree in each.

One case was the prayer of Albert Doll for divorce from his wife, Martha. The couple have not lived together for the past two years and there was practically no chance for a reconcilation. Immediately after the decree Mr. Doll signed a quit claim deed to Mrs. Doll for the farm where they lived.

Doll's charges were gross neglect of duty. Mrs. Doll made no effort to prevent the decree from being granted.

The other case was the suit of Mary E. Oakley vs. Gurney Oakley. It was shown in the testimony that the husband had enlisted in the United States Army in January, 1906, and when his time expired he re-enlisted. Letters from him indicated that he had no intention of returning to his wife. Mrs. Oakley's maiden name was Howel.

Henry Sass, of near Fidelity has been courting Mrs. Oakley for some months and immediately after the divorce was granted a marriage license was taken out in the probate court and on Tuesday evening Rev. O.P. Furnas united the couple in marriage. They will make their home near Fidelity. Following the ceremony the nuptials were given an old fashioned belling.
